PROFILE

Jody served three decades in the Navy, most recently working as the Command Senior Enlisted Advisor to Three-Star Commanding Generals responsible for more than 45,000 people. He spent the first two decades of his Navy career in the Special Operations Community.

Jody's breadth of leadership and life experience range from elite special operations teams in combat to involvement with Heads of State and Foreign Dignitaries. He's an avid surfer and loves anything that gets people outside to enjoy nature.

Jody's mission is to create leaders who understand that true leadership extends beyond the office. He's passionate about helping them deepen their relationship with their people to build happy and highly functioning teams.
