PROFILE

Lorraine is a charismatic C-Level executive, global thinker, and equal rights advocate paving the way for individuals to unveil their authentic leadership power, embrace their own identity, and redefine their horizons without limitations.

Having grown through her own personal struggles and life experiences, Lorraine confidently drives home the importance of acceptance as critical for creating a collaborative cultural vision. Lorraine's ability to view matters with beginner's mind allows her to empower people to embrace the unknown and create the leadership identity they have always desired.

Lorraine's mission is to encourage, equip, and engage others within the hospitality and professional industries, as well as the LGBTQIA+ community.
